

Public Safety

- “Adopt a Library” program by law enforcement
- Walking police officers in neighborhoods
- An Effective Police Accountability Board
- Visible police walking in neighborhoods
 - Consistency among staff serving a specific neighborhood
- Updated Children at Play signs
- New Parking Signs that are not faded and street signs that are not faded.
- Handicap parking on streets that need them
- Striping Crosswalks

Economic Development

- Develop Job Incubator with the U of R, using SW location
- Bull's Head Development
- More business incubators for Jefferson Avenue
- West Main corridor at King Street area.
- Society Restaurant

Arts & Culture

- Grant opportunities for public art & murals, and playful sidewalks
- Develop artwork for Brooks Landing
- Develop Artwork for Bull's Head
- Beats at Brooks
- "Arts Project"

Education

- Better partnerships between institutions, libraries, per centers and schools
- Schools should help inform parents and the community about issues of importance to the schools
- Develop an instructional technology learning center in the Southwest. Create a makes space. Get U of R engaged.
- Keep neighborhood schools.
- Create after-school activities and supported services

Neighborhood Development

- Reduce the percentage of rentals. Increase owner occupants
- Support additional Brooks Landing activities like “Beats at Brooks”
- Troup Street Playground development with fieldhouse or amphitheater
- Dog Park in the Southwest
- Water apparatus at Troup Street or at #4 School
- Hamm Memorial Site development
- LED lighting on Reynolds Street from West Main Street, south to Frost Avenue.
- Montgomery Center Improvements

Children & Families Health

- Make “On the Road” clinics at accessible places. (Example: shots before school starts, physicals, etc.)
- More accessible active play opportunities
- Get URMC engaged
- Activities or events with focus on local service providers
- Increase the awareness of mental health

Communications

- Encourage skills training for seniors to access technology
- Southwest Quadrant website with abilities to develop web pages for each neighborhood association or block club with interactive accessible administrative rights for each group.
-