“ShTALHIM, or the “pillars” ShT and ALHIM, which constitute the “secret key” that is the solution to the puzzle of the second child, signify the negative theology (i.e. religious atheism) --- or Theriology --- of the Beast, which brings with it a new overarching system capable of assimilating and reforming all religions in order to advance humanity beyond its primitive spiritual condition into a New Era of Enlightenment in hedonistic Gnostic Atheism.”

LIBER LEGIS
CERTAIN ANGLOQABALISTIC ANOMALIES IN LIBER LEGIS:

H KOKKINE GYNE + THE SCARLET WOMAN + TO MEGA THERION + THE GREAT BEAST (the fourfold formula of Baphomet) = 593, a permutation of 395 (see below).

"Now then this Two-in-One letter [Shin and Teth, or ShT, basis of the name of Shaitan], is the third Key to this Law; and on the discovery of that fact, after years of constant seeking, what sudden splendours of Truth, sacred as secret, blazed in the midnight of my mind! Observe now: 'this circle squared in its failure is a key also.' Now I knew that in the value of the letters of ALHIM, "the Gods," the Jews had concealed a not quite correct value of [pi], the ratio of a circle's circumference to its diameter, to 4 places of decimals: 3.1415; nearer would be 3.1416. If I prefix our Key, 31, putting [Shin Teth], Set or Satan, before the old Gods, I get 3.141593, [pi] correct to Six places, Six being my own number and that of Horus the Sun. And the whole number of this new Name is 395, which on analysis yields an astounding cluster of numerical "mysteries." (Shin 300 Teth 9 Aleph 1 Lamed 30 He 5 Yod 10 Mem 40. Note that 395 being the corrections required! Note also the 31 and the 93 in this value of [pi].)

L, 2:75-76:

"4 6 3 8 A B K 2 4 A L G M O R 3 Y X 24 89 R P S T O V A L" = 395!

4 6 3 8 = 21 = 7+7+7, or 777, the one (or one, one, one) to follow 666.

A B K = 14 = The number of the Law (and the number of letters in “Do what thou wilt”), signifying that he is come to fulfill the Law.

2 4 = 6.
A L G M O R = 66.
666.

3 + YX = 52, the number of Stele in Greek. Thus: Stele 666.

I.e., the one to follow 666 will be accompanied by a sign of the Stele 666. (1968 e.v. saw the first publication of the Stele 666 in the archaeological literature, vide Abd el Hamid Zayed, “Painted Wooden Stelae in the Cairo Museum”, Revue d'Egyptologie 20 (1968), pp. 149-152, and plate 7.)

As for 24 and 89, these numbers point to a critical time: it was in 1989 that we entered into the great planetary conjunction of Neptune, Uranus, Saturn, Mars, Mercury, Venus, the Sun and the Moon in Capricorn; and it was on June 24th of that critical astrological period that the dramatic triple conjunction of Saturn, Neptune and Uranus took place, when this “one to follow” received the illumination of the Abraha Deber ("Voice of the Chief Seer"), culminating in a series of Samadhis throughout the following year, to be fully documented in another place. Israel Regardie regarded this astrological period as portentous, making special mention of it in his Introduction to The Law is for All.

Finally, R P S T O V A L (418 in Hebrew = Abrahadabra, c.f. L, 3:47: "And Abrahadabra. It shall be his child & that strangely") = 123 = Akilnotuas (or transliterated in Hebrew: AChILNOThV ATz = 666), a resurgence of Aiwass that resulted from the magical activities of one Soror Anadra in 1992 e.v., leading to the complete revelation of Liber Legis to the fulfillment of previously unresolved prophecy. 123 is also the value of ASTER ARGOS in English. But more striking than all of this is the Qabalistic evaluation of the phrase in L, 3:38, referring to the future Child of the Prophet: "There is a secret door that I shall make to establish thy way in all the quarters". The numeration of the phrase "a secret door" is 123! Aside from the door symbolism, in that same verse this Child is also depicted "as a sword in my hand": the value of this phrase is 188, the number of "child of the Prophet" from L, 2:39. 123 also = "he must teach" (L 1:38).

Here is the astrological chart for that period:
Hadit = 42 = Aleph; and Nu = 35 = Lamed. Aleph-Lamed, of course, comprise the Key of the Law of Thelema discovered by the first Magical Child, Achad. Their sum is 77, the Goat - or Baphomet, the twin-sexed or “Double-God”.

For more on this vital key, see the notes to v.39 and vss.75 and 76 of ch.2, as well as v.71 of ch.3, below.

*L, 1:7:

“Behold! it is revealed by Aiwass...”: “it is revealed” = 72 = Aiwass. Here also Aiwass is identified as the minister or servant of Hoor-paar-kraat (note the peculiar spelling of Harpocrates here; it is usually given as Hoor-pa-kraat or as Heru-pa-kraath): the numeration is 143, which is also the value of “Silver Star”, the name of the hidden and universal Third Order.

*L, 1:8:

“Khabs” (the Beast in every man and woman), 41, “in the Khu” (the Astral body), 40: their sum being 81, this wedding - once fully consummated with the advent of the Holy Supernal Will (the 93 Current) - makes one equivalent in one's awareness to Horus (=81), i.e. Baphomet, or Shaitan-Aiwass, the underlying divinity in each and every beast.

*L, 1:9:

This is very illuminating when evaluated Qabalistically by our system, as the word “Worship” has the value 108, which in Buddhism refers to the number of defilements or veils to be torn away, as it were, in order to achieve Enlightenment. This therefore gives the word a wholly different meaning from that which it holds for many. Not worship as in reverence for an external being, but rather mystical practice which aims to fulfill one's needs on every level, as well as to better one's life both inwardly and outwardly through the practice of subtle magick (not superstition but wise application of factors not normally recognized and utilized). What is to be “worshipped” or invoked in this way? None other than “the Khabs”: Egyptian for the “Body of Shadow”, i.e. the hidden Beast; but it is only dark insofar as it is secret, as in truth it is total Enlightenment of the highest order. In fact, this is reflected as well in the numeration: “the Khabs” = 74 = Lucifer. This is particularly apt in light of the next words in the verse, describing the consequence of such worship: “behold my light shed over you!” Astounding, as Lucifer is the bearer of the Light.

L, 1:15:

First: the honorific, “prince-priest the Beast”, numerates as 232, which is one of those pregnant trinities of value (i.e. three digits in which twin values encompass a different value) that crop up so often under scrutinizing analysis of Liber Legis by our system of Gematria. Prince = 65 = Adonai (“Lord”) in Hebrew; and Priest = 87 = Nothing, the Key of the Law of Thelema (that there is no God; see *L, 1:21, “With the God and the Adorer I am nothing”, and L, 1:46, “Nothing is a secret key of this law” - see below for more on this heavily loaded verse).

He is also designated as “chosen priest & apostle of infinite space”. “Chosen priest & apostle” = 175, the value of “Stele of Revealing”. This is significant in light of L, 1:26, which reads:

“Then saith the prophet and slave of the beauteous one: Who am I, and what shall be the sign? So she answered him, bending down, a lambent flame of blue, all-touching, all penetrant, her lovely hands upon the black earth, & her lithe body arched for love, and her soft feet not hurting the little flowers: Thou knowest! And the sign shall be my ecstasy, the consciousness of the continuity of existence, the omnipresence of my body.”

The prophet refers to the Stele 666 as the ultimate “unmistakable sign” of Nuit, in his autobiography, The Confessions of Aleister Crowley:

“Consider now: The Work whereby I am a Magus began in Cairo (1904) with the discovery of the stele of Ankh-f-n-Khonsu, in which the principal object is the body of our Lady Nuith...observe, how closely the words of my entry of January 12th describe the Sign, ’... the omnipresence of my body.’”

Why “infinite space”? Space only goes so far out before it reaches a limit; but what lies beyond that limit? Clearly “nothing” - the absence of something - is not it. Going beyond the most farthest reaches of space takes one back through time to the conception of the universe, prior to which there must have been cause for such a beginning to manifest. Most likely, this was yet another end in an infinite number of the inevitable cycles of cause-and-effect.
Qabalistically, “infinite” = 86 = Ahathoor, and “space” = 44 = Set: Babalon and the Beast again (or Baphomet, the androgynous child of their union).

The full title of the avatar of Babalon, “the Scarlet Woman” = 177. The word “power” = 77 = Had + Nuit, or Nu + Hadit; it is also the value of “stars”.

L, 1:16:

The Beast “is ever a sun”: “a sun” = 55 = Satan; and Babalon is “a moon” = 58 = Star! They are the Star of Sothis. This is evident in the numeration of the very next line: “But to him is the winged secret flame” -- for “winged secret flame” = 202 = “the Star of Sothis”. And as for Babalon? “to her the stooping starlight”: “the stooping starlight” = 262, yet another of those pregnant trinities that pop up so often in the phrases of Liber Legis. Note as well that “to her” = 66 = “woman”.

L, 1:17:

“But ye are not so chosen”: “so chosen” = 98 = “prophet”: i.e., “ye are not of the status of the prophet”.

L, 1:18:

“Burn upon their brows, o splendidous serpent”: “Burn” = 55 = Satan, the Serpent. Note too that “splendidous” = 143 = “Silver Star”. As for “their brows”: “brows” = 77 = “stars”. It is as if to say, “arouse their stellar nature”.

L, 1:19:

“O azure-lidded woman, bend upon them”: “azure-lidded woman” = 175 = “stele of revealing”, which depicts her as bending down.

L, 1:20, 21:

“The key of the rituals...” (i.e. the key of Thelemic religion) “...is in the secret word which I have given unto him” : “The key” = 74 = Lucifer, the enlightened omnipresent consciousness whose vision for humanity has its basis in self-adulating, self-empowering religious atheism: “There is no god but man” (Liber Oz). These “rituals” of our atheistic religion, sanctifying the carnal ways of the beast in a system of self-gnosis and self-exaltation, aim to lift up mankind not to God but to the full knowledge, here and now in life not after death, of his own Supernal potential.

The phrase, “secret word which I have given unto him”, culminates in another pregnant numerical trinity: 383. The key to the word is that it is “secret”, the value of which is 70 = Ayin, the path of the Devil on the Qabalistic Tree. See L, 3:39: “in it [i.e. The Book of the Law] is the word secret...”

Crowley writes the following of the Devil in Magick in Theory & Practice:

""The Devil" is, historically, the God of any people that one personally dislikes. This has led to so much confusion of thought that THE BEAST 666 has preferred to let names stand as they are, and to proclaim simply that AIWAZ --- the solar-phallic-hermetic "Lucifer" is His own Holy Guardian Angel, and "The Devil" SATAN or HADIT of our particular unit of the Starry Universe. This serpent, SATAN, is not the enemy of Man, but He who made Gods of our race, knowing Good and Evil; He bade "Know Thyself!" and taught Initiation. He is "the Devil" of the Book of Thoth, and His emblem is BAPHOMET, the Androgyne who is the hieroglyph of arcane perfection. The number of His Atu is XV, which is Yod He, the Monogram of the Eternal, the Father one with the Mother, the Virgin Seed one with all-containing Space. He is therefore Life, and Love. But moreover his letter is Ayin, the Eye; he is Light, and his Zodiacal image is Capricornus, that leaping goat whose attribute is Liberty."

This Devil -- Shaitan-Aiwass, or Satan-Lucifer -- is not by any means just another deity whom we are to serve: on the contrary, he -- or it rather -- is the hidden God residing in the consciousness of every living thing, impersonal and without mandate beyond the liberating rule of Do what thou wilt.

What is this word? Crowley suggests, in his commentaries, that it is Abrahadabra; but this is merely another clue leading to the key, not the key itself. There is a letter authored by H.P. Blavatsky (the prophet’s official forerunner) on the night Crowley was born, when she was staying at a house in Ithaca, New York, stating the following:
“I pray thee, Brother mine, to take necessary steps to adjourn the meeting until Saturday [Oct 16] which will be. Sister [Blavatsky] has a labour to perform. Be friendly to the English seer, Emma [Emma Hardinge Britten, author of Art Magic, at whose house the October 16th Theosophical Society meeting, originally scheduled for October 12th – the Prophet's birthday – was held], for she is a noble woman and her soul hath many gems hidden within it. Begin not without our Sister [Blavatsky] -- Unto the regions of Light I send for thee my prayer. Serapis”

Needless to say, the strange phrase “a great labour to perform” -- along with the fact that this was the very week of the Prophet's birth – suggests a work of magical conception along the lines of what Crowley himself postulated in the case of Frater Achad. At any rate, the message purports to come from Serapis, a discarnate agent of the Beast, who insists on postponement of the forthcoming meeting owing to Blavatsky's mysterious preoccupation. She had, this supposed Master insisted, “a great labour to perform”. It is extraordinary, of course, that this was the week of Crowley's nativity. The meeting postponed was rescheduled and actually held, per Serapis' instruction, the following Saturday, which was October 16th, 1875. C.f. H.P. Blavatsky, Tibet and Tulku, by Geoffrey A.Barboka, Publisher: Madra, Theosophical Publishing House, 1966, xxiii, 476 p.

The relevant part of the letter is the flip side, which features a curious sentence in Latin that closes with three words in Greek. The Latin sentence translates as:

“Under the pretext of justice, a strict application of law is often the gravest injury, Brother. Be gentle in manner though resolute in execution. Can such Wrath towards divine souls befit one fully Adept?”

But it is one of the three words which interests us most. The two words accompanying this important word are merely the title of the purported author of the letter, the Hidden God, or the Beast: they are Semes Eilam, meaning “Eternal Sun”. The word itself is an invocation given by the author, described as the “Hidden Sun”. Here is how the message on the back of the note finishes:

“In Nomine,
ABΛΑΑΝΑΘΑΛΒΑ
What is this invocation of the “Eternal Sun” jotted down by Blavatsky as the inspiration of a sudden and mysterious “labour” of which it was her highest priority to attend -- above even the establishment of her grand new Theosophical Society, penned on the very night of the nativity of the prophet of the New Aeon, even if unbeknownst (perhaps) to her consciously?

Abalanathalba is highly significant. It translates as “Thou art my Father”, and according to C.W. King, The Gnostics and their Remains, p.232:

“Horus is often figured sailing through the heavens in the sacred boat, the Baris steered by two hawks; solar emblems, with sun and moon overhead, and taking the same titles ΙΑΩ, ΑΒΛΑΝΑΘΑΝΑΒΑ, &c., as the great Abraxas-god himself, and with reason.”

Ablanathanalba is an alternative spelling. But this divine name (or its curtailed form) is that from which the corruption Abracadabra (or Abrachadabra) derives – see Bizarre Notes & Queries, pp.416-417. It is the secret word concealed within the prophet's Word of the Aeon, Abrahadabra.

We refer to the aforementioned C.W. King book, however, for more details regarding this name. On p.245, in a section on Gnostic gems, he begins discussing a particular Abraxas gem inscribed by Basilides. It is inscribed with the proper name of the deity (or Devil, as the case may be), IAO, as well as its epithets, Abrasax and Sabaoth, and is accompanied by the invocation: Semes Eilam, Ablanathalba (“Thou art my Father”). But it is not an appeal to some external god, but rather an affirmation of self-recognition and realization of one's own inherent divinity within the greater being of one's own occult nature.

IAO, as we know, is a formula of the Beast, Babalon, and their holy infernal Spirit, the Baphometic Current. I signifies the phallic Beast; A signifies the Current; and O signifies the yonic Babalon. The prophet applied both a prefix and suffix of F or V (the letters being interchangeable in Hebrew) to this formula, to signify the unchanging pre- and post-life reality of our Supernal nature.
On p.316 of his work, King writes on the word Abracadabra, describing it as a spell:

“The most famous spell of all, ABRACADABRA, is first mentioned by Serenus Sammonicus, the most learned Roman of his times, and physician to Caracalla, to whom he dedicated his poetical ‘Guide to Health,’ entitled ‘De Medicina præcepta saluberrima.’ This work, remarks Spartian, was the favourite study of the unfortunate Cæsar, Geta, for attachment to whose cause this true son of Apollo was afterwards put to death by the imperial fratricide. Severus Axelander also, “who had known and loved Serenus,” greatly admired his poetry, putting him on a level with Horace, as Lampridius’ expressions seem to intimate. This high authority orders the word to be written out in the form of an inverted cone, and declares it of virtue against all diseases:

“Thou shalt on paper write the spell divine,
Abracadabra called, in many a line;
Each under each in even order place,
But the last letter in each line efface.
As by degrees the elements grow few
Still take away, but fix the residue,
Till at the last one letter stands alone
And the whole dwindles to a tapering cone.
Tie this about the neck with flaxen string;
Mighty the good ’twill to the patient bring.
Its wondrous potency shall guard his head—
And drive disease and death far from his bed.”

“The belief in the virtue of this recipe flourished through the Middle Ages. It seems alluded to in the ‘Dialogue on Masonry,’ ascribed by Leland to Henry VI.; for amongst “the things that Masons conceal” is “the winnynge of the facultye of Abrac”; perhaps signifying the possession of this mystical arrangement of letters: unless, indeed, one chooses to supsect in this “facultye” a deeper sense, some traditionary knowledge of the ancient Abraxas religion. Again, De Foe mentions how people commonly wore the word written in the manner above prescribed, as a safeguard against infection during the Great Plague of London.
As for the etymology of the word, the most satisfactory yet offered is the compound of the Hebrew Ha-Brachah，“blessing,” and Dobara, “speak”; meaning the “Blessing of the Mystic Name”—that is, utter the Tetragrammaton, invoke the Holy Name of Jehovah, itself the mightiest of charms [including exorcism].”

He then proceeds to discuss this magical word again, on p.317:

“On the other hand that normal address to Iao, ΑΒΛΑΝΑΘΑΝΑΛΒΑ, “Thou art our Father!” is so found on talismanic jaspers arranged in the exact pattern recommended by Serenus for the paper spell, and probably so done in compliance with his directions. One is strongly tempted to discover in this same Ha-Brachah the real origin of the equally famous title “Abraxas.” The Greek letters, constantly in use for numerals, at once presented their numeric value in every word to the practised eye of the Kabalist.”

This magical word or spell is, in other words, a benediction that, used as a talisman and uttered as a mantram, conveys something of the force of the Beast, and grants tremendous magical and spiritual power by right of lineage and by virtue of gradual initiatic assimilation. It is the eleven-lettered word of the invocation of Satan, saying: “Thou art my Beast”: ΑΒΛΑΝΑΘΑΝΑΛΒΑ.
Remarkably, the value of the translation of this most holy Aeonic key, in the English --- i.e., “Thou art my Father” --- numerates as 199 = “Do what thou wilt”. But more remarkable still is the fact that our revision of the translation of this holy word, “Thou art my Beast”, numbers 188 = “child of the Prophet”!

And what is the Qabalistic virtue of this word of magick, Ablanathalba, in its original Greek, by Greek Gematria? None other than 128, the value of Choronzon in English.

In the glossary of his book, Cults of the Shadow, Kenneth Grant describes Choronzon as follows:

“Dr. John Dee (1527-1608) referred to Choronzon as 'that Mighty Devil'. Its number, 333, is that of Shugal, 'the Howler', whose types are the Jackal and the Fox, both emblematic of Set in the Cult of Typhon. The abode of Choronzon is in the desert of the Abyss beyond the Pylon of Daath.”

Choronzon is the underlying collective subconscious mind of all humanity and animality, the slumbering primal mind of the infinite past, and one-half of the total Supernal Mind, the other half being the overlying perfectly evolved mind of the future (to which we also have access given the right keys). Its numeration in Hebrew, as Grant says, is 333 — one-half of 666: for it is one-half of the Double-God, Shaitan-Aiwass (Satan-Lucifer, or Set-Hoor).

As Regardie points out in his biography of the prophet, The Eye in the Triangle, the Adeptus Exemptus aims to “cross the Abyss” of noumenal reality to full (if gradual) assimilation and apprehension of the trans-mundane perspective depicted metaphorically as “the City of the Pyramids”, not by exorcising and warding away this elemental force, but by doing just the opposite.

Anton LaVey was right when he wrote:

“During white magical ceremonies, the practitioners stand within a pentagram to protect themselves from the "evil" forces which they call upon for help. To the Satanist, it seems a bit two-faced to call on these forces for help, while at the same time protecting yourself from the very powers you have asked for assistance. The Satanist realizes that only by putting himself in league with these forces can be fully and unhypocritically utilize the Powers of Darkness to his best advantage.” (The Satanic Bible, “Some Evidence of a New Satanic Age”.)

Granted, L, 2:7 does equate the Beast with “the Exorcist”, but it is the internal mess of a mindset, polluted with innumerable factors of conflicting drives and neuroses stemming from countless genetic and experiential causes, that is “exorcised”, not some external demon; one's ego is not only beneficial to one's well-being when strong, but it is also better capable to carry out its will in that condition.

The Book of the Law states: “It is a lie, this folly against self.” (2:22)  Ego is not the enemy; it is the prime tool in the toolbox of the magician.

While it is true that Choronzon represents both the savage force of spiritual dispersion and the foundation of the ego, it is also the gateway to the wisdom and understanding of Baphomet; and it is through this conduit that the Current is channelled. Choronzon is Dispersion: the numeration is even the same; but its force disperses the clutter of the mundane life -- an outcome to be dreaded only if one clings wretchedly to a static ideal, ignorantly and fearfully resisting that change by which we evolve -- and sets one on the way to a successful and glorious manifestation of the true will of the Beast within.

Some think that Crowley taught that crossing the Abyss meant abolishing the ego; but nothing could be further from the truth. Indeed, the ego of the Exempt Adept is destroyed as it were, but never gotten rid of --- nor would it be desirable even if it were possible. Just as that which is destroyed by flame is transformed into ash and smoke, so too is the ego of the initiate breaching the barriers of occult consciousness dispersed not to oblivion but rather expanded to an infinite level of awareness --- i.e. not Atmadarshanic but Shivadarshanic --- that of Babalon and the metaphorical Sea of Understanding (Binah).

Thelemic doctrine, however, posits this as a mere beginning, not an end. This is what distinguishes us from Buddhists and other such ascetics. For to attain is not itself the goal but the means by which one may bring enlightened wisdom and joy not just to oneself but to all the world, that others may appreciate the beauty thereof, in whatever medium through which such beauty or greatness materialize. Most importantly, we are not looking for some cowardly way out. There is no pie in the sky and there are no joyous reunions with deceased relatives before any pearly gates, either. We are where it's at; there is no better place to be. We don't pursue spiritual attainment so that it will “free” us or “save” us from anything: it is despicable to seek to avoid the life that we know; even our worst experiences can assist our evolutionary process.

Of course, once one is baptized as it were in the Sea of Understanding, and transformed by the elemental forces of Choronzon, then and only then can one be a vessel suitable for filling with the mystical lifeblood of the Current of all minds of Supernal greatness and genius that have ever attained to such heights (and depths) across all time, by the Whore of Eternity, Babalon, so that she may lift the same to the lips of her drowsy Beast, that He may be revived in the ego that was refitted for the very purpose. The meaning of it all, in other words, is not with any God, but is only to be found in pure passion itself --- passion for life and for love, and in all that one's joy leads one to do.

So it is clear, in light of the above, that --- contrary to what other, right-handed religious approaches hold --- the ego is not expunged, it is transformed (as its process of interior evolution is accelerated) and not only that but actually increased and --- ideally, at least --- heartily indulged, and by infinite proportions!

In verse 21, we find the first positive and direct affirmation of atheism in The Book of the Law: “With the God & the Adorer I am nothing: they do not see me. They are as upon the earth; I am Heaven, and there is no other God than me, and my lord Hadit.”

Note that this verse follows immediately on the heels of the verse hinting at a secret key to all our Theriology. Clearly, the first line of this following verse betrays the secret: our God is no God: “With the God & the Adorer I am nothing...” The key to our religion is that it is designed to uplift and gratify and empower not some external being but those of us worthy by might of intellect & will and by right of our own inherent divinity.

Qabalistically, what is most striking is that “God” + “Adorer” = 87 = “nothing”!

Babalon, the “secret name”, numbers 47, the same as Beast. Again and again we find this interchange as the one dissolves into the other and vice versa: for we are now in the Age of the Androgyne, the Aeon of the Double-Sexed Baphomet, Master and Mistress of eternal joy and bliss not in some ethereal heaven but in the endlessly recurring cycles of reality.

L, 1:23:

“But whoso availeth in this, let him be the chief of all”: “chief” = 31 = AL in Hebrew, or “all”.

L, 1:24:

“I am Nuit” = 87 = “nothing”. “Nuit” = 64 = Thelema, her word of holy Law, the Law of “Do what thou wilt”.

L, 1:26:

“The beauteous one” = 175 = Stele of Revealing.

“A lambent flame of blue” = 166 = The Book of the Law.

“Black earth” = 81 = Horus.

“The black earth” = 114 = Hierophant (same thing as Horus).

“Thou knowest” = 171.

“The unfragmentary non-atomic fact of my universality” (see MS) = 564.

“Universality” = 175 = “stèle of revealing”.

L, 1:27, 28, 29:

“Her lovely brows” = 199 = “Do what thou wilt”

“Her light” = 87 = “nothing”

“Sweet-smelling perfume” = 247 = Therion (ΘHPION) by Greek Gematria.
“continuous” = 151 = The Great Work.

“of the stars” = 131 = The Great Beast.

“divided” = 57 = Abrahadabra, the word of double power.

“chance of union” = 128 = Choronzon, Dispersion.

\[ L, 1:32: \]

“Obey” = 47 = Beast.

“seek me” = 58 = “star”

“heart” = 52 = “Stele” in Greek; also, “Earth”

“tongue” = 82.

\[ L, 1:33: \]

“deep trance or swoon” = 210.

\[ L, 1:34: \]

“Write unto us” = 185.

“the ordeals” (107) + “the rituals” (133) + “the law” (69) = 309, ShT (שְׁתּ) in Heb.

“the Law is for all” = 161.
“This that thou writest is the threefold book of Law”: “threefold” = 93, Aiwaz.

“Ankh-af-na-khonsu” = 144 = “Ra-Hoor-Khu-it”
“the priest of the princes” = 258
“comment” = 83 = “wisdom”

“mantras and spells” = 188
“the obeah” = 64 = Thelema.
“the wanga” = 79 = Tahuti.
“wand” = 42 = Hadit.
“sword” = 79 = Tahuti.

This is further proof of the verity of this claim, that the key to verify the legitimacy of the claim of the child of the Prophet should be right here in the verse honoring not just him but also his magical mother, Leah Hirsig, a.k.a. Soror Alostrael, 31-666-31: i.e., “Tahuti” (whose avatar was an ape) is an augury of her --- arguably the greatest of the Scarlet Women; her nickname was “the Ape of Thoth”. It is a secret no more. As for the date of the feast: it is to be the date of Hirsig's greater feast --- February 22nd, at 6:15 am. For this is not only the date commemorating her death but it is also the date on which, in 1992 e.v., the child in question commenced the magical working that sent him on his way to knowing that magical origin and realizing his mission.

[Both of these — “a star” and “Lucifer” — are perfectly descriptive of what Crowley called the Holy Guardian Angel, or what I term the Holy Supernal Will: a being of a stellar nature that conveys the universal light and wisdom to humanity. A star is an apt metaphor inasmuch as this Will — one's own aspect of the 93 Current or Aiwass — is one's own loftier being. This entity of Supernal Mind is really neither external nor internal, but in a way it is both simultaneously: i.e., here or at any given moment in time, as experienced from a particular point, it is objectively real, quite distinct in both knowledge and awareness from oneself; but from the perspective one obtains later, through real shifts of consciousness that take place as a consequence of various epiphanies and other mystical and magical events, i.e. the Supernal vantage — in which the sense of separateness from this Current simply melts away as greater realization occurs — there is no difference.]

“Kill” = 44 = “magick”; Set; “kalas”.

“spare not” = 108 = “worship”; the veils or defilements of the inferior ego. [In other words, this verse is as always one of extreme subtlety: the merciless extrication here is self-directed, not externally-directed — i.e. intended to weed out weakness and imperfection of character.]

“That stélé...count well its name”: “well” (“its name”) = 52 = “stélé” in Gr.! [This is extraordinary, as it was this discovery — not realized by the prophet until decades after the reception of the verse — i.e., that СТНΛΗ 666 is the actual name of the stélé of revealing, something that should have been obvious upon visiting the relic in 1904 e.v. and reading its exhibit card which carried this very name of stélé 666 — that uncovered the fulfillment of this prophecy all that time later: “it shall be to you as 718”. This is the value of our Gematria, that it can help to establish in this way that there is in fact a superior intelligence — one capable of discerning events across vast periods of time — at work here: for СТНΛΗ 666 = 718. Even more amazing is the fact that we can now, over a century later, discern this additional Gematric sign, concealed in the line, “count well its name” — as if saying that its name is “well” = 52. As this is no system of Gematria contrived long after the event of the writing, but is in fact the natural order & value that was there in the first place but simply overlooked, we would be foolish to dismiss all these extraordinary numerical correspondences as mere coincidences. This was, I assert with conviction, all very much in the Mind of Aiwass at the time that it was transmitted to the scribe.]

“And it shall be suddenly easy” = 242.

“easy” = 50 = “an image”; Hadith. [See Crowley's New Comment to this verse: “The word "Set" is curious -- is there here a reference to Set the God?...I am inclined to see some deeper significance in this passage. There has elsewhere been reference to the words "not", "one", "Thou knowest". The word "easy" is moreover suggestive of some mystery; it is used in the same doubtfully intelligible sense in verse 40.” Indeed, Hadith is equivalent to the formula of the “god” Set or Satan.]

“olive” = 63 = “eleven” [I.e., the Scarlet Woman. Clearly, the Abramelin oil symbolizes the holy seed of the Beast as the olive oil represents the sacred kalas of Babalon. As with nearly all, just about any corresponding symbols may be substituted as needed or desired.]

“afterwards soften & smooth down with rich fresh blood”: “rich” = 38 = Apep, the ophidian occult force inherent within the kalas and menses of the priestess as well as the spermatozoa of the priest; “fresh” = 56 = “will” (phallic); “light” (yonic). [These are all veils; the underlying meaning is to be gotten by interpreting these symbols in a sexual light. The “blood” in these verses is: (a) menses; (b) sperm; (c) kalas. Of course, all of this concerns only the highest grade of initiate, being the activities of the secret temple; in public ceremonies, cognate symbols are substituted in their place. Ultimately, even the sexual devices utilized are symbols — i.e., levers of the unconscious mind — and the desired effect (whether it is Supernal union or some other) may be achieved by any number of means.]
